

*Glug*drowning sounds* “HALP! S.O.S!”

That’s the sound of MLS plunging beneath the ocean’s depths without the IRREPLACABLE LIFE RAFT that is STS.

Jas and Mel (a.k.a JAM, because Education is our JAM...and career outcomes are the peanut butter...are we stretching it? Ok we’ll stop now.) are here to PROTECT your STS interests, and advocate for some awesome changes.

We will ensure that ALL OF US survive and excel in Law School. We’ll convert this life raft into a goddamn Noah’s Ark, and survive the flood that is the FINALS, as your 2018/2019 Education Directors.

We get it folks...we understand...you’ve been diligently attending every seminar and “willingly” spending all your time hibernating in the JD area, but that’s clearly not working out for some of you. I mean, even if you HAVE your own yacht, WE HAVE A GODDAMN ARK. YA HEAR? AN ARK! And plus, everyone needs some help sometimes.

On a serious note though, we’ll put in maximum effort to continue and improve the well run and organized education portfolio.
