

My name is Renzo Tweedie and I want to be your second-year representative! I describe myself as a people person; I love meeting new people and have already learnt so much from our amazing, diverse cohort. As second-year rep community will be my focus. The relationships that we make now will continue with us throughout our careers and this is something to foster. I want to make events that are more casual and accessible, and will strive to make everyone feel welcome and a part of the community!

Also on my agenda is making the law school a more comfortable place to spend 95% of your time in. I think I would make a great representative because I am approachable and great at communicating, making me the ideal person to come to if you have any questions, queries, qualms, quibbles or quandaries. I also love solving problems; I feel if an issue was brought to my attention I would be able to find the solution that would benefit everyone equitably. I'm great at listening but I'm not afraid to speak my mind, and vocalise what everyone is thinking but no one wants to say. I've been standing up for myself my whole life so let me stand up for you. And remember, nothing rhymes with Renzo!
