

FIRST YEAR REPRESENTATIVE NOMINEE

Bern Toohey

Hey mates,

I'm Bern Toohey and I'd love to be one of your First Year Reps.

It's already pretty clear we have a fantastic cohort, but none of us could seriously claim to know all 300+ of our peers after just one month. To that end, I want to help foster an open, non-judgmental culture where people are comfortable approaching someone new at ANY point in the year.

I want to make it easier for everyone to keep up with the plethora of LSS events. I will maintain an energetic and accessible presence around the law building, spreading the word about upcoming opportunities (because a quick chat with a trusty source beats wading through 10 million Facebook notifications any day).

I want the University to pay attention when we have something important to say. If you bring a concern to me, I won't be afraid to take action. I'm efficient, reliable, and true to my word.

I love a chat – hit me up to talk about anything from wellbeing to law ball outfits, unfair exam timetables or what your grandma got up to over the weekend.

I will take the duty of representing this fantastically diverse cohort seriously whilst not taking myself too seriously in the process. I want everyone's First Year to be memorable for laughter, banter, mates and ripper LSS activities, not SWOTVAC tears.

Cheers, Bern Toohey
